

To Those Among Women

Who Appreciate the Importance of Being Well Dressed.

We invite your inspection of our line of Suits—not a "larger line than ever" but already as large a line as we have shown some seasons. The styles we are showing this season are more than usually attractive. There is much to interest you in our lines, principally style, quality and price. We are showing Suits this season at $12.50 that actually would have looked good to us last season at $15.00 or $18.00. Then there is a $10.00 line, others at $13.50 and 15.00. Then there are Suits at $20.00 to 30.00 that are copied from models of Parisian designers and Americanized to suit fashion's idea. We are proud of the line and wish you would consider yourself invited to view the assortment.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Carl Benedict is ill at his home on Eastern avenue.

F. B. Cahill of Mainfield was in the city to-day on business.

Ernest Smith of Washington was in the city to-day on business.

Clyde McAllister of Williamstown was in the city to-day on business.

Alba Bohannon of Washington was in the city yesterday on a business visit.

J. Ward Carver went to his home in Marshfield this afternoon to spend Sunday.

The program offered by the Theatorium is up to the minute, four fine pictures and a popular song; bring the whole family.

Miss Mabel O. Tracy, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Alvin Gates, went to Mendon, Mass., to-day, where she is teaching.

The Great Sachem C. B. Carr of St. Johnsbury made his official visit at the "Tribes of Red Men" last evening.

The Great Sanapp Morris E. Leonard of East Barre was also present.

The meeting was very largely attended and the adoption degree was conferred.

After the meeting the tribe gathered in the banquet hall and had corn and venison.

The meeting last night in the Worthen hall was especially good and interesting.

With a good attendance present, many were greatly blessed. The Rev. H. S. Taylor is expected to arrive to-night.

He has not been in his usual health, or he would undoubtedly have been here before this. Evangelist John Weightman of Scotia, N. Y., has had charge of the services thus far, and they are proving a great success.

Everyone is invited, as the services are undenominational. This evening at 7 o'clock, and to-morrow at 10:30, 2:30 and 7, and evenings next week at 7 o'clock, in the Worthen block, corner Keith avenue and Main streets. Come and see.

EAST MONTPELIER.

A nine-pound son was born yesterday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mack.

The Rev. William Wight Laite, the new pastor of the People's church in Montpelier, will preach at the Evangelical church in this town to-morrow at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Laite is a vigorous young man and a good speaker. The Rev. Mr. Taylor, the pastor appointed to the Evangelical church in this town, is expected to arrive with his family some time during the first part of this month.

To the woman who bakes, Royal is the greatest of time and labor savers. Makes home baking easy, a pleasure and a profit.

Italian Agent: Chi vuol Partire Sul La Providence deve Assicurarli subito il Bighetto dal Nostro Agente di Barre, Vt., Antonio Giachino, questo vapore lascia sempre 300 e 400 cento passeggeri indietro.

Further price punctured merchandise, prices decreasing, crowds increasing—is the announcement made in to-day's issue by A. A. Smith & Brother. They said that unless you are temptation proof not to look at the prices they are making on their stock of shoes, clothing, hats, shirts, underwear, gloves, hosiery, jewelry, etc. You cannot but realize that profit is but secondary in this great reduction sale, the object being more business. Lookers as welcome as buyers.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend to our friends our sincere thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent bereavement and for the beautiful floral tributes.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cummings.

The ladies of Circle No. 6 of the Congregational church, are planning to hold an Easter sale Friday afternoon and evening, April 10th, in the church vestry, at which time there will be for sale a great variety of children's clothing and home cooking and candies. In the evening a delightful program will be given, of which announcement will be made later. Remember the date, April 10.

Novelists are just beginning to awaken to the possibilities in the last days of monarchical Mexico, before Emperor Maximilian, deserted by France and left to die alone, was taken out and shot, dying like a hero. Lew Wallace wrote much of the romance of the time into "The Fair God." Clarence Bennett founded his play, "A Royal Slave," which will be seen at the opera house next Monday, upon General Wallace's famous novel, but was not content to let matters stop there. He has not attempted to paint the life, but he has made romance—more romantic. His play fairly tingles with exciting heart interest.

The funeral of Charles R. Cummings, who died at Springfield, Mass., last Wednesday, was held from the home of Earl Cummings on Summer street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. E. O. Thayer of the Methodist church officiating. The interment was in Elmwood cemetery. The young man leaves two half-brothers, E. C. Cummings and Leon Cummings, and one sister in Middlesex. He died of heart trouble and was about 16 years of age. Many floral tributes were sent and a partial list of the senders follows: Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stevens, Stella Landers, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. E. M. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Cutts, Margaret Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Cummings.

CAN'T FIND ROBBERS.

Several Possible Clues Run Down to No Avail.

Stowe, April 4.—State's Attorney Tracy and Sheriff Jones of Johnson with Sheriff Burt are working on the burglary case, but so far have found no traces of the guilty parties. Several possible clues have been worked but with no results. Postoffice Inspector Howard Shaffer of Burlington is in Stowe investigating the case by the burglary and inspecting the office.

"The Nearest Way TO A Man's Heart, Etc."

You know the rest—"is through his stomach." Such being the case, Mrs. Housewife, it is up to you to take care that only the best and most seasonable food is set before your "John" or "George" if you want to keep him good natured and true. Here's the stuff to do it with:

Plenty of Vermont Chickens, splendid ones.

Home-Cured Hams, sweet and tender.

Dandelions, nothing better for "greens" than these.

Radishes, just "bite" enough to them to be good.

Lettuce, Barre Grown, needs no description.

Celery, crisp, better than usual.

Spinach, good and cheap enough for anyone to afford.

Cucumbers, spring luxury.

Rhubarb, first of the season, brittle and good flavor.

Step in here to buy your Sunday dinner. Phone 9-3.

TASSIE BROS., 77 No. Main St., Barre, Vt.

Saturday HAMS 12c LB.

You remember that first sale of Hams we had a while ago. You thought we sold those cheap, but these are a half cent cheaper. And we guarantee these to be just as good in every way as those were.

Sweet, sugar-cured whole Hams 12c a pound.

Our usual line of fresh Dandelions, Lettuce, Radishes, Celery and Spinach.

Meats of all kinds—Chickens—cheaper than you get elsewhere.

'Phone 15-11 for a Ham.
